APPLICATION OF FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY FOR AN ORDER
PURSUANT TO RULE 2004 OF THE FEDERAL RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE AUTHORIZING AND DIRECTING (A) THE PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND (B) THE ORAL EXAMINATION OF INDIVIDUALS
DESIGNATED BY THE DEBTORS AND BELIEVED TO HAVE KNOWLEDGE OF THE RELEVANT MATTERS

TO: THE HONORABLE ROBERT E. GERBER,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Federal Republic of Germany, Office of Defense Administration USA/Canada, 11150
Sunrise Valley Drive, Reston, Virginia, 20191 ("FRG") by its undersigned counsel, hereby moves this Court for entry of an order pursuant to Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) directing (A) the production of documents, and (B) the oral examination of individuals designated by the Debtors and believed to have knowledge of the relevant matters, as specified below. In support of its motion (the “Application”), FRG respectfully represents as follows:

FACTS

A. Background Regarding Hinrichs’ Claim

1. In 2007, an uninsured drunk motorist rammed a GM (defined herein) truck in which Florian Hinrichs, Wilhelm-Bockelmann-Str. 22, 29633 Munster, Germany (“Hinrichs”), then a 27-year old German Army officer, was a passenger. Hinrichs was stationed at Ft. Rucker, Alabama for training. Hinrichs' vehicle rolled over, crushing his neck, rendering him a paraplegic for life. Hinrichs is in Germany under extensive care.

2. Through an Alabama personal injury law firm, Hinrichs sued GM on various product liability counts (defective roof and seat belt systems), main action entitled: Florian Hinrichs v. General Motors Corp., et al., Circuit Court for Geneva County, Alabama, Case No. CV-2008-900009 (“Alabama State Case”). In the Alabama State Case, Hinrichs seeks damages personal to him such as pain and suffering and for medical, wages, transportation, and other expenses. Hinrichs estimates that his past and future damages will add up to be several million dollars.

3. As a result of the accident to Hinrichs, pursuant to German Law, FRG has paid and continues to pay medical and related expenses.

B. Debtors’ Chapter 11 Filing

4. On June 1, 2009 (the "Petition Date"), General Motors Corp. and certain of its affiliates ("GM" or the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. On June 1, 2009, the Court entered an order directing the joint administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. The Debtors' cases are consolidated for procedural purposes only.

6. GM is one of the "Big Three" U.S. automakers. Each year it sells millions of vehicles to American consumers, some of whom unfortunately suffer injuries, sometimes catastrophic, as a result of manufacturing defects and other legally culpable conduct on the part of the Debtors.

PREDICATES FOR RELIEF

7. This Court has jurisdiction over this Application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is properly before this Court under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. The legal predicate for the relief sought herein is Bankruptcy Rule 2004.

RELIEF REQUESTED

8. By this Application, FRG requests the entry of an order directing the Debtors to (A) produce certain documents, and (B) make available for oral examination certain individuals of the Debtors' choosing believed to have knowledge of the relevant matters. FRG, a party in interest, wishes to investigate the acts, conduct, property, liabilities, and financial condition of the Debtors, and assess Debtors' product liability insurance coverage pertaining to the Alabama State Case. Thus, it is appropriate to obtain documents and testimony from the Debtors.

9. Bankruptcy Rule 2004 provides, in relevant part:

- (a) Examination on Motion. On motion of any party in interest, the court may order the examination of any entity.
- (b) Scope of Examination. The examination of an entity under this rule or of the debtor under § 343 of the Code may relate only to the acts, conduct, or property or to the liabilities and financial condition of the debtor, or to any matter which may affect the administration of the debtor's estate, or to the debtor's right to a discharge . . .
- (c) Compelling Attendance and Production of Documentary Evidence. The attendance of an entity for examination and the production of documentary evidence may be compelled in the manner provided in Rule 9016 for the attendance of witnesses at a hearing or trial.

10. It is well-established that the scope of an examination under Bankruptcy Rule 2004 is unfettered and broad. In re Vantage Petroleum Corp., 34 B.R. 650, 651 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1983). Indeed, the examination can “legitimately be in the nature of a ‘fishing expedition.’” In re M4 Enterprises, Inc., 190 B.R. 471, 474 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 1995); see also In re Valley Forge Plaza Assocs., 109 B.R. 669, 674 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1990) (“R2004 permits a party invoking it to undertake a broad inquiry of the examiner, in the nature of a fishing expedition.”); In re Frigitemp Corp., 15 B.R. 263, 264 n. 3 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1981) (noting that predecessor to Rule 2004 examinations have been likened to “fishing expeditions”).

11. Examinations under Bankruptcy Rule 2004(a) and (c) may include within their scope, among other things: any matter which may relate to the property and assets of the estate; the financial condition of the debtor; any matter which may affect the administration of a debtor's estate; and, in a chapter 11 case, any matter relevant to the case or to the formulation of a plan. The information sought by FRG in connection with this Application is consistent with Rule 2004. At a minimum, FRG is entitled to determine whether insurance benefits exist as part of the Debtors' bankruptcy assets, either through private policies or through a self-insured program that could apply to Hinrichs' claims in the Alabama State Case. The answers to these queries could entitle FRG to pursue a claim in the instant bankruptcy proceeding regarding any available insurance benefits, and Rule 2004 is precisely intended to facilitate this process. See In Re Ecam, Inc., 131 B.R. 556 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991) (the intended use of Rule 2004 is, "namely, to determine whether there are grounds to bring an action to recover property of the estate.")

12. FRG is a "party in interest" entitled to take examination(s) and to request documents under Rule 2004. The Bankruptcy Code does not include a definition of a party in interest, however, the 11 U.S.C. §1109 makes clear that:

“any 'party in interest' may appear and be heard in a chapter 11 case. Section 1109(b) provides that [a] party in interest, including the debtor, the trustee, a creditors' committee, an equity security holders' committee, a creditor, an equity security holder, or any indenture trustee, may raise and may appear and be heard on any issue in a case under this chapter. The term 'party in interest' is not limited by the small list of examples in Section 1109(b)”.

See 3 Norton Bankruptcy Law and Practice § 54.02 at part 54 (1987) (internal citations omitted). Furthermore, Section 1109(b) must be construed broadly to permit parties affected by a Chapter 11 proceeding to appear and be heard. In re Amatex Corp., 755 F.2d 1034, 1042 (3rd Cir. 1985); also See In re Ionoshpere Clubs, Inc., 101 B.R. 844, 849-850 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989). Courts must determine on a case by case basis whether the prospective party in interest has a sufficient stake in the proceeding so as to require representation. In re Texaco, Inc., 81 B.R. 820, 828 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1988) (quoting In re Amatex Corp., 755 F.2d at 1042); also See In re Ionoshpere, 101 B.R. at 849-850 (“the party requesting standing must either be a creditor of a debtor to invoke the court’s jurisdiction or be able to assert an equitable claim against the estate”). FRG will clearly be affected by the instant bankruptcy proceedings; the determination whether Hinrichs’ potential future liability judgment against the Debtors will be paid is included in the proceedings. This determination will impact whether FRG might be able to stop paying Hinrichs pursuant to its current obligation under German law.

13. Moreover, Section 101(10) of the Code defines a creditor as an entity that has a "claim" against either the debtor or the estate, arising at certain specified times. In turn, a claim under Section 101(5) of the Code is defined as:

"(A) right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, or unsecured; or (B) right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured, or unsecured."

Consequently, FRG is a "creditor" with a "claim" against the Debtors, namely, if Hinrichs prevails in his case against GM, FRG would seek reimbursement from GM's insurance for monies paid to Hinrichs as a result of the accident, pursuant to German law.

14. Here, FRG is seeking an examination of the Debtors and the production of documents directly related to assets of the Debtors' estates, including, but not limited to, Debtors' product liability insurance coverage, or lack thereof. Such an inquiry is clearly within the purview of a Rule 2004 examination. See In re Texaco, Inc., 79 B.R. 551 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1987), where creditor's overly broad Rule 2004 request for examination and document production was narrowed by the Bankruptcy Court to still include, among other things, production of liability insurance policies and documents with respect to purchase or renewal of director and officer insurance.

15. In In re Int'l Fibercom, Inc., 283 B.R. 290 (Bankr. D. Az. 2002), an insurance company that provided payment and performance bonds for a debtor who failed to complete a construction contract sought discovery regarding those pending claims as well as any other potential claims, because it held a subrogation interest through the debtor. The In re Int'l Fibercom Court held that the insurance company was a party of interest pursuing the intended purpose of Rule 2004, that is "to allow the court to gain a clear picture of the condition and the whereabouts of the bankrupt's estate." (Id at 292), as a result, the Court provided the insurance company broad examination and document production from the debtor under Rule 2004. Likewise, the existence and kind of insurance benefits available from the Debtors' assets for the Alabama State Case are squarely within the scope of discovery contemplated by Rule 2004.

16. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2004, FRG seeks authority to compel production of the requested documents as identified on Exhibit A to the attached proposed order (the "Document Request Subpoena") so as to be received by FRG's counsel not later than September 11, 2009.

17. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2004(c), FRG requests authority to issue a subpoena to individuals designated by the Debtors and within the control of the Debtors and believed to have knowledge of the matters specified in Exhibit A to the attached proposed order (the "Individual Subpoena"). The examinations will be conducted on no less than seven (7) days' notice at a location to be determined by FRG that is within 100 miles of the location of the Debtors or person to be examined.

18. FRG requests that this Court retain jurisdiction to resolve any objections to the proposed order, to the requested examinations, and production of documents.

NOTICE

19. Notice of this Application has been given in accordance with pursuant to Rules 2004, 9014 and 7004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. FRG respectfully submits that no other or further notice need be given.

WAIVER OF MEMORANDUM OF LAW

20. Because this Application presents no novel issues of law and the authorities relied upon by FRG are set forth herein, FRG respectfully requests that the Court waive the requirement for the filing of a separate memorandum of law in support of this Application pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(b).

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, FRG respectfully requests entry of an order:

- (a) granting the relief requested in the Motion;
- (b) directing the Debtors to produce the documents described in the Document Request Subpoena as Exhibit A to the attached proposed order;
- (c) authorizing FRG to issue a subpoena directing certain individuals of Debtors' choosing believed to have knowledge of the relevant matters to submit to oral examination, pursuant to Rule 2004(c) of the Bankruptcy Rules and Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7030, concerning the matters set forth in Exhibit A to the attached proposed order;
- (d) granting FRG such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
